

SETTING

Janie Lynn Panagopoulos, 2014 ©

A story setting (under 25 pages) should take place within three days, have three or less setting changes, and should include: three specific locations for each setting, season, month, day, time, year.

SETTING

- * Select your Setting(s) with a purpose to "Best" tell your story.
- * You must be able to visualize and draw your setting(s).
- * Season, time, day, month and year are all part of your setting(s).
 - * All three of your characters will share the setting(s).
- * Your "Problem" & "Solution" must happen within your setting.
- * Your setting must make sense to your "Problem" and "Solution".
- * Beginning, Middle, & End must take place within your setting(s).
- * Be specific with your setting(s) listing proper names, locations.

Setting 1

1. Location: forest, city, country, farm

2. Proper name of location.

3. List three specific details.

4. What is the time period, year, month, day, time of day?

5. Specific condition of setting.

Setting 2

1. Location: forest, city, country, farm

2. Proper name of location.

3. List three specific details.

4. What is the time period, year, month, day, time of day?

5. Specific condition of setting.

Setting 3

1. Location: forest, city, country, farm

2. Proper name of location.

3. List three specific details.

4. What is the time period, year, month, day, time of day?

5. Specific condition of setting.
